

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

NOV 10 1950

TO : Director of Training

FROM : Assistant Director for Communications

SUBJECT: Basic Intelligence Course

DATE:

1. The Basic Intelligence Course would be appropriate for the training of certain Office of Communications personnel at grades GS-11 and above who are not familiar with the "overt" functions of CIA. It would be useful in training new employees as well as communications personnel returning from overseas posts.

2. It is contemplated that assignments to this course will be made in connection with the Office of Communications Career Management Program. It is estimated that Communications will have two students available for this course each quarter.
